Skip Armstrong & Anson Fogel	The Warrior	9	Pro	Doc	What are you willing to fight for? Growing up on the North Shore of Oahu, surfing was Christopher Peterson's life. He fought for his place in the sport, for family, and for friends. When his grandmother called and asked for help, he left the islands -- only to find tragedy. He has not surfed in the ocean for over 6 years. Now he discovers solace and release surfing the rivers of the American West.
Skip Armstrong & Anson Fogel	The Elder	5.25	Pro	Doc	At 68, Rob Elliot has guided 200+ trips on the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river in Arizona. How do you want to be remembered, when this life joins the wind? What did you leave, in these chasms, upon these lives, young & curious? What did you write? What dust in the rain, sand in the rivers? Those you touched, embraced and kissed, loved... what echoes there? How will it travel, your wisdom, your story, your suffering and joy? These walls, silent, deafening, ancient and new. What did you make them, what did they make of you? A life running, teaching or learning, what is escape? What did you find? Wind, replenishing rain, sun. Who did these thorns see? What did these waters wash from you? The stars, in the abyss beyond, how did they shine, on you? Will you release the storm, the scars, whirling as they go, yet holding love, life? The luminous child, the harsh knowing of age, what did you leave behind?

John Grace	The Marshall Expedition	24	Pro	Doc	Imagine a time without paved roads, railways, or internal combustion engines. A time early in our nation's history when the land was wild and rivers, not interstates provided the most efficient means of exploration and commerce. Such was the climate of 1812 when Chief Justice John Marshall led an expedition into America's first true frontier, the rugged Appalachians. 200 hundred years later, Andrew Shaw assembled a team in honor of Marshall's journey and embarked on an expedition of their own. Follow along as 'The Marshall Expedition' traverses our nation's forgotten last frontier.
John Grace	The Draw Down	29	Pro	doc	A river is a magic thing. A magic, moving, living part of the very Earth itself. It flows through the impossible, never forcing, and at the same time never holding back. Some are distant images never to be tasted, felt, or heard. Yet others hold a deeper connection. Places we have spent time, shared struggle, found piece. We are so connected to some we rearrange our entire lives to be closer to them. The ebbs and flows of these waters quench our souls in a way few earthly things can. The Green River is one of these.
John Grace	The Fall Line	22	Pro	doc	Few places in the sport of whitewater kayaking are as iconic as Great Falls of the Potomac. In 1975, it was here that Tom McEwan and Wick Walker took running vertical waterfalls and extreme whitewater to a new level; and in doing so, laid the foundation for a new chapter in the sport. 'The Fall Line' visits Tom McEwan for his account of running the falls for the first time as well as an in depth Great Falls tour with local Geoff Calhoun. To learn more about this geologic spectacle be sure to check out 'The Fall Line'.
